Letter Ruling Number: 14-0047

This is in response to your letter dated January 29, 2014, requesting that the Mississippi Department of Revenue provide a ruling regarding a statement verifying Mississippi State University's exemption from Mississippi Sales and Use tax. Your request has been assigned the letter ruling number listed above. Please use this number in any further correspondence with the DOR concerning this request. This letter is a modification of the original letter ruling sent to the taxpayer, and is, therefore, intended to replace the original letter ruling. The original ruling is retracted and will no longer be considered valid as of the date of this letter modifying the position of the DOR.

After a search of the applicable statutes, this is to confirm that Mississippi State University does qualify for sales tax exempt status pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. §27-65-105(b). This Section provides that sales to schools, when such schools are supported wholly or in part by funds provided by the State of Mississippi, provided that this exemption does not apply to sales of property which is not to be used in the ordinary operation of the school, or which is to be resold to the students or the public are exempt from sales taxes. As a prerequisite to exemption, the sale of property or charge for services must be sold directly to, billed directly to, and paid for directly by the exempt entity.

This exemption does not apply to sales of tangible personal property or services to contractors purchased in the performance of contracts with the exempt entity, nor the employees of the exempt entity, although the contractor or employee may be reimbursed for the expense by the exempt entity. Furthermore, this exemption does not apply to Contractors Tax levied by Miss. Code Ann. §27-65-21. Finally, this exemption does not apply to sales of property which is not to be used in the ordinary operation of the school, or which is to be resold to the students, the employees of the organization, or the general public. Please see Mississippi Administrative Code Title 35.IV.13.02 located on the Mississippi Department of Revenue website at www.dor.ms.gov for additional information regarding this exemption.

You may use a copy of this letter in order to substantiate the Mississippi State University's exempt status. I trust that this is the information you were requesting. Should you have any additional questions, feel free to contact this office at (601) 923-7015.

Under Miss. Code Ann. §27-65-85(a), it shall be unlawful for any person to use an exemption authorized under the Sales Tax laws for the purpose of avoiding the payment of tax the person is required to pay by law. Any person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or imprisoned not exceeding six (6) months in the county jail, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.
